

Criteria for collaboration with international partners

When Ready4More collaborates with churches or mission organizations in other countries, or with international mission organizations, presenting needs on the website Ready4More is built on the following premises.

1. Criteria for national churches/mission organizations in other countries to present needs on the website Ready4More:

- Builds all cooperation, nationally and internationally, on the principle of mutual trust between equal partners in the Kingdom of God.
- Agrees with the ideas and conclusions of The Lausanne Covenant and shares its description of global mission as a vision of the gospel for every person, and Kingdom impact in every sphere of society.
- Shares the objectives and values of Ready4More, expressed in the Mission Statement and on the homepage.
- Relates to a denomination/local church and has good national recommendations.
- Has an established relationship with a denomination, church or Christian organization in Sweden.

2. Criteria for international mission organizations to present needs on the website Ready4More:

- Builds all cooperation, nationally and internationally, on the principle of mutual trust between equal partners in the Kingdom of God.
- Agrees with the ideas and conclusions of The Lausanne Covenant and shares its description of global mission as a vision of the gospel for every person, and Kingdom impact in every sphere of society.
- Shares the objectives and values of Ready4More, expressed in the Mission Statement and on the homepage.
- Has a national office in Sweden.