

Mission Statement Ready4More

Ready4More is

- A platform facilitating international Christian volunteer work
- A resource site for practical mission work in the world
- A webpage for coordination of needs in the world with the talents and gifts of individuals in Sweden
- An independent network for Swedish Christians

Ready4More is designed to

- Present current needs, defined and described by Church Unions, local churches and organizations in different countries
- Be a resource bank for the expertise and experience of individual persons
- Bring together known needs with known resources, to make practical efforts possible for the Kingdom of God
- Establish contacts for volunteer work of many different kinds
- Present available contact trips for Swedish church groups to churches in other countries

Ready4More is aimed at

- Individuals who want to serve in mission in other countries for a shorter or longer period
- Individuals with all kinds of expertise, who want to channel their professional skill into mission work

Ready4More is motivated by

- The clear calling in God's Word for the disciples of Jesus to go out into the world and actively meet the needs of people, practically, socially and spiritually
- The vast, challenging and continually growing needs in the world
- The fact that many people are longing to be able to serve with their gifts in the Kingdom of God
- The need of God's people in different countries to meet, share, learn from each other and serve together

Ready4More is cooperating with

- Swedish Church Unions, local churches and mission organizations
- International mission organizations with representation in Sweden

Approved 2017-02-04

Updated 2023-09-16